Lieutenant General J. M. Philipott, USAF Deputy Director, Defence Intelligence Agency The Fentagon Washington, D. C. 2030!

Moor General Indipos:

Thank you for your letter of 13 April 1972 indicating the conditions under which the Defense Intelligence School will provide support to our proposed information Science Program for FV 1973. The conditions under which the Defense intelligence School will provide office space, secure classrooms, connectedly recess, terrateals, equipment and furnishings in Buildings T 42 and T-4 and the necessary security juards, char service, utilities and building maintenance are satisfactory.

The Central intelligence Agency's Director of Training and the? Commandant, Defense intelligence School, have completed the coordination of plans for an interim CIA-managed information Science Training Program in your Anacostic incilities during FY 1973. A mutually satisfactory arrangement has been achieved which will enable the Agency to program approximately twenty weeks of instruction in Building T-6 auring FY 1973.

Lappreciate your cooperation in this matter and the helpfulcess of the Commandant. Defense intelligence School, and his stuff in the resolution of problems associated with those arrangements.

Sincercly,

/s/ W. E. Colby.

Licateaant General J. M. Philpott, USAF Deputy Director, Defense Intelligence Agency The Pentagon Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear General Philpott:

This letter responds to your memorandum of 3 February to the Chairman. United States Intelligence Board which stated that DIA could not continue full financial and personnel support to the Information of Science Center after 30 June 1972. CIA does desire to take advantage of the statement in your memorandum amplified in your conversations; with General Robert Taylor indicating that space (buildings T-4 and T-42), utilities, computer support (access to DIAOL System, use of existing terminals including associated cryptographic devices, modems, and maintenance), guard and char services, building maintenance and necessary furnishings would continue to be available for an on-going training effort in Information Science. We would like to conduct the various courses pending determination of longer range requirements and a more permanent solution.

Preliminary contact has been made with Captain Furnas and unless you desire otherwise we propose to begin immediately the further discussions necessary to establish this interim CIA-managed training capability.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby

Executive Director-Comptroller

MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN, UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT: Closure of the Information Science Center

- References: a. DCI Memorandum to SecDef, subject: "Establishment of Training Courses at the Defense Intelligence School in Application of Information Science Technology to Intelligence," 25 March 1967.
 - b. SecDef Memorandum to the Director, DIA, subject:
 "Training of Intelligence Personnel in Information
 Science Technology," 13 June 1967.
- 1. References a and b above, requested the Director, DIA, among other things, to develop specialized courses at the Defense Intelligence School for applying information science techniques to specific categories of intelligence problems. An Information Science Center (ISC) was accordingly set up within DIS for this purpose on 26 December 1967.
- 2. Due to drastic DoD budgetary cuts and heavy reduction in resources currently being sustained by this agency, DEA will no longer be able to continue the ISC mission. Accordingly, it will be necessary to close the ISC by 30 June 1972. The classes now in session will be the last ones presented by the Center.

3. If the invelligence community wishes to give full support to there ISC, DIA can arrange to provide space for classrooms and faculty entiges; however, DIA can no longer provide funds or personnel.
